Where Do We GROW From Here? ... is a “how-to” gardening and cookbook that showcases how the recent pandemic impacted people of every nation, creed, and color. This book serves as a snapshot in time of how a large portion of the world’s population coped with the pandemic through gardening and cooking. Additionally, this book offers the home gardener and cook an easy-to-follow guide to growing and preparing the foods produced, fresh in your backyard gardens. This beautifully illustrated book gives essential tips for growing edible flowers, fruits, and vegetables in an aesthetically pleasingly designed, yet functional garden. It also offers surprisingly unique ways to easily prepare the various herbs, flowers, and freshly harvested produce; right in your own kitchens ... turning everyday meals into gourmet delicacies!

Interwoven within the chapters, are delightful personal stories of the author's more memorable garden and kitchen visits with many of his celebrity friends and chefs.

The book has over 100 beautiful photographs of various home gardens, delicious dishes and organically grown fruits and vegetables. This book takes you behind the scenes for an informative and entertaining peek into the phenomenally popular gardening and cooking communities and serves as a delightful "keepsake" for generations to come.
